

Foreword

Carolyn M D'Ambrosio, MD

Dr. Carolyn M D'Ambrosio is the Program Director for the Harvard-Brigham and Women's Hospital Fellowship in Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine and is Associate Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School. She has been awarded Best Teacher from both medical students and residents during her years on Faculty and received a Distinguished Teaching Award from the Pulmonary Division at Tufts Medical Center prior to her departure from there. She has consistently been named one of Boston's Best Doctors for the past several years. In addition to teaching and clinical work, Dr. D'Ambrosio has conducted research on Sleep and Menopause, Sleep and Breathing in Infants, and participated as the sleep medicine expert in two systemic reviews on home sleep apnea testing and fixed versus auto-titrating continuous positive airway pressure. She continues her work in Medical Ethics as a Senior Ethics Consultant at Brigham and Women's Hospital.

I am delighted to welcome you to the winter edition of US Respiratory & Pulmonary Diseases, where you will find a range of topical articles that we hope you find useful and relevant to your day-to-day clinical practice.

We would like to take the opportunity to invite you to contribute to our winter 2020 edition. The journal accepts review articles, original research, and case studies, along with specially selected editorial articles. We encourage authors to enhance their articles with video content, such as surgical demonstrations and video abstracts, which help to engage the audience and bring the article to life.

Presubmission enquiries are welcomed by the journal's editorial team and submissions can be made through the touchRESPIRATORY submission portal (see the information box below).

US Respiratory & Pulmonary Diseases would like to thank all expert authors who contributed towards this edition. A special thanks goes to our Editorial Board for their continuing support and guidance. Thanks also go to all organisations and society partners for their ongoing support. ■
